PINE BANK BRIDGE
MEADOWCROFT ROCKSHELTER AND HISTORIC VILLAGE
WASHINGTON COUNTY

Activities: The public is invited to visit this 275-acre outdoor museum featuring a 19th century living history village with a one-room school, blacksmith shop, church, log houses and the Pine Bank Covered Bridge. This covered bridge, built in 1871, is the oldest surviving bridge in the southwestern corner of PA and was fully rehabilitated this year including repairs made to the timber-framed Kingpost truss. In addition to the 19th century village, also visit the museum’s recreated 16th century Indian village to see what life was like in Western PA before European settlement; a recreated 18th century frontier trading post and Indian cabin; an exhibit about the barns of Western PA; as well as exhibits of horse-drawn vehicles and equipment, harness racing memorabilia and historic regional photographs. Do not miss the world-renowned Meadowcroft Rockshelter National Historic Landmark, a prehistoric campsite that dates back 16,000 years (admission ticket required). The museum’s visitor center includes restrooms and a gift shop. A picnic area and pavilion are also located on the grounds.

Entertainment: Live musical performance will take place throughout the day in Meadowcroft’s historic 1870 Fairview Church. Nancy Conway and Tom Crytzer, dressed in period fashions, will perform historical tunes that date from the American civil war.

Contact: Meadowcroft Rockshelter and Historic Village 724.587.3412 or heinzhistorycenter.org.

Directions: Located in Meadowcroft Rockshelter and Historic Village in Avella. From Washington, PA: Take Route 18 North to Route 50 West into Avella and follow signs. From Pittsburgh: Take I-79 South to Exit 54. Turn left on Route 50 West for approximately 25 miles into Avella and follow signs.
